

DICTATORS.

Ben Johnson and His Gang Are Trying To Run the Earth and Everything on It.

A Revenue Man in the Louisville District Must Be For Montgomery.

OR LOSE HIS JOB.

We have had occasion during the present term for Congress allude to the fact that it appeared that the Collector's office at Louisville was undertaking to control the elections through its employees, all over the Fifth Internal Revenue District. That it was a violation of law and a violation of good morals, and that it should be resented by the people. Because Mr. Montgomery gave his personal influence to secure the office of Collector for Mr. Johnson, it is no reason why he should make a machine of his office and its employees to elect Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery nominates the postmasters in his district and the Internal Revenue Collector names his subordinates, the two amounting to buy and sell, located at the most servile points during an election, and the whole force thrown in favor of any individual in an election is a tremendous power by which the ins could defy the people and prevent votes in office. Add to this the promises of place in the future for political services in behalf of the candidate of these officials, and active election work required of those already appointed, and we have an engine of demoralization that is a menace to Democratic government and good morals. The postmasters all over the district are for Montgomery and they ought to be. Mr. Montgomery has showed that he considered their appointment a perquisite that attaches to his office and one in which the people have no right to dictate. He appointed his friends and they properly remain his friends. But there is no reason why every revenue man in the district should be for Montgomery, and tearing his shirt for him, unless the head of the department has solidified him. The balance of the people who are under no obligation to the revenue department are reasonably divided among the two parties. There is not the same division among the storekeepers, gangsters, etc., and why are they out scouring the country in the interest of Montgomery? We see the regulars laid off in the middle of the month (a thing unheard of before) and officials put in their places, the regulars taking to the woods immediately for Montgomery, and the special regulars over to him with their kin as far as they can control them. Mr. Cleveland, when he was first president called for a service partnership and a violation of civil service rules, endangering the perpetuity of Democratic government, and he looked off the heads of those engaged therein. It is a most dangerous effort to demoralize the ballot. This combination of Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Johnson to dictate to the Democratic party who they shall nominate as candidates, should be resented by the people as a wholesale demoralizing through public patronage.

We do not mean to say that any man in the revenue service is "sold" for birthright for a mess of pottage; but we do mean to say that the unanimity of their sentiments for Mr. Montgomery is indicative of political organization in the revenue service for the purpose of the civil service rules or promissory of Democratic success, and those who abandon their official duties to go out electioneering are flagrant violators of the laws of the land and of good morals, and cannot complain if they are repudiated by the people in the future.

The Internal Revenue Collector's office wants to run the earth as is shown by the following extract from the Louisville Evening Times of the 21st inst. "Mr. Atherton's organ serves notice on the postmaster at Louisville that he must keep his hands off the Congressional election in this district. A like warning to the Collector of Internal Revenue, both as to the collection in this and the Fourth Congressional district, must be conducive to civil service reform, which, as everybody knows, is the point at which the McGraw-Pulch Dickey Bird is driving."—Marion Falcon.

SAMPLE.

Rev. W. B. Stead filled his regular appointment Saturday.
Miss Lena and Gerrie Brown and Miss Ella Brown were the guests of Miss Nellie Grant one day last week.
Miss Muriel Harlan, of Owensboro, is visiting relatives and friends in this place.
Miss Annie Adkins, of Louisville, is visiting the Misses Miller.
Miss Nellie Grant was the guest of Miss Lena Brown last Saturday.
Mr. Jack Mattingly, who has been visiting her mother, returned home last Saturday morning.
Mr. Barney Gilliland is the guest of Mr. Jack Mattingly.
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Vester Brumfield, of Harwell, are the guests of their mother, Mrs. Nelson Jolly, who is quite ill with bilious fever.
Misses (Ed) Garrett and Jerry McLaughlin are the guests of Miss Ella and Laura McCarty, last Sunday.

Base Ball Notes.

The Fountain Field club made a very nice move in accepting a challenge to play Preston at Painesville the 21st. All some of their best players were off at Elizabethtown attending a game between the Elizabethtown's and Meade county club, the latter of which they had become members, "taking the pledge" at Ekron the 14.

But our boys always eager for an and practice mustered up the required number by enrolling "cinder fella" whose hands were as soft as elder-down, and whose courage would rise and fall with the velocity of the ball, falling when they would see a red hot ball coming at 'em, and rising when it had passed safely by put on a bold front and stood before the galaxy selected from three clubs, namely, Preston, Union Star and Meadeville. Fountain Fields made a splendid start, but Gabe Brown, pitcher, got stuck not by a ball, but by "some one" outside of the game and retired to the field where he would have more time to feast his eager eyes. He complained of being sick—all out of whack, the symptoms were such as to justify me in diagnosing the case as above.

He pitched three innings and when he left the box the score stood 3 to 5 in favor of Fountain Fields.

When Gabe retired from the box it seemed as if an Achilles had withdrawn his powers, lack took his flight, Henry Shacklett taking his place in the box, pitched one inning but being "off his feed" and in no condition for work, retired with the score stood 5 to 14 (so I have been told by one of the Fountain Fields, but I was not there, being 35).

The game was highly interesting from start to finish. Both sides composed of nice young men, no bickering, all seemed to enjoy themselves and to know how to make spectators feel at ease.

St. Louis.

Origin of the Dollar-Mark—Five Theories.

Below are given five theories of the origin of the dollar-mark ($), they being selected from about twenty seemingly plausible solutions:

1. That it is a combination of the figure 8, the dollar being formerly called a "piece of eight."
2. That it is a modification of the figure 8, the dollar being formerly called a "piece of eight."
3. That it is derived from a representation of the pillars of Hercules, consisting of two needle-like towers or pillars connected with a scroll. The old Spanish coins marked with the pillar device were frequently referred to as "pillar dollars."

4. That it is a combination of "H. S.," the initials of the United States.

5. That it is a combination of "P. & S.," from peso duro, signifying "hard dollar." In Spanish accounts, peso is contracted by writing the S over the P, and placing it after the sum.

According to one writer, the symbol of the dollar is a monogram of the letters "H. S.," the dollar being originally a "half" coined in the valley of Saint Joachim, Bohemia, and known as "Joachim's dollar," and the monogram the initials of the words, "Joachim's dollar." A writer in giving his opinion of "Reason No. 3," as given above, says: "The American symbol for dollar is from the Spanish dollar, and the origin of the sign, of course, must be looked for in associations of Spanish coins. On the reverse of the Spanish dollar is a representation of the pillars of Hercules, and around the pillars is a scroll with the inscription 'plus ultra.' This device, in course of time, has degenerated into the sign which at present characterizes the American dollar. The laws of the land and of good morals, and cannot complain if they are repudiated by the people in the future."

The Internal Revenue Collector's office wants to run the earth as is shown by the following extract from the Louisville Evening Times of the 21st inst. "Mr. Atherton's organ serves notice on the postmaster at Louisville that he must keep his hands off the Congressional election in this district. A like warning to the Collector of Internal Revenue, both as to the collection in this and the Fourth Congressional district, must be conducive to civil service reform, which, as everybody knows, is the point at which the McGraw-Pulch Dickey Bird is driving."—Marion Falcon.

THREE CHEERS!

For the Breckenridge County Boy and the Brave Men Who Are Standing by Him.

Eight Counties Are Safely Conceded to Murray by a Disinterested Observer.

MURRAY FOR MURRAY!

A commercial traveler, who, by the way, is something of a politician as well, and can size up a situation about correct, has been all over the Fourth Congressional District and he writes this interesting letter to the Marion Falcon:

GLANVILLE JUNCTION, July 28, 1894.—EDITOR FALCON:—"As to the Hon. D. R. Murray gaining ground daily is a fact indisputable. Certainly he is a forcible speaker and a man full of magnetism drawing close to him friends who will adhere to him strongly all through life. As a matter of course Mr. Montgomery's friends think it is a great sin and a piece of stupid impudence on the part of Mr. Murray ever thinking of opposing a man who is a banker, out of debt, and has the money to do as he pleases. Besides, his son is the cashier of the bank and can throw away money at will; but the battle is not always to the strong, but to the true."

Mr. Montgomery has fallen far below par and his stock is begging buyers or sellers. Having disappointed the people of his district, his hereditary supporters declare a change is inevitable and must come. His excuse for not discharging his duties is flimsy, as he says people should not blame him for what Congress or Senate will not do, is a song sung so often that now there is no time for it, the fact is the result is all the same.

At Lebanon Junction every man I conversed with was a Murray man, and Bullitt county would go for him; same opinion at Coleridge.

At Elizabethtown I was surprised not to find every man a Montgomery man. The excitement is not so high, and as far as I could ascertain no one could get a bet over $50 on Mr. Montgomery. Votes were counted and on the street running down from the courthouse to the depot 45 were for Murray and 25 for Montgomery. The probabilities are that Elizabethtown will go for Montgomery by a very small majority, if at all. Hopewell, Rowlett and Sonoma are for Murray. At Upon the county line between Hardin and Larue runs through the town and a quarter of a mile before Hart comes in. Here Mr. Murray will speak in a few days and draw a large concourse of people from each county.

At nearly all the old homes, where he was a neighbor, he has been getting a negro band for an escort and spoke to a small crowd, but so loud and constant were the yells for Murray that Mr. Montgomery was not permitted to speak over fifteen minutes. He being on the Ways and Means Committee and a committeeman on free trade, matters are very serious, he may have to get his presence is absolutely needed at Washington, he is now at home to attend to personal matters. He has no way home to ride if he is a good rider, Murray may be a little behind but will reach there in the long stretch. As far as can be learned, and the people count in the same mind as they are now in, the following counties may be conceded to Murray. Bullitt, Nelson, Grayson, Breckinridge, Ohio, Marion, Taylor, Washington, and, perhaps, Larue, leaving Montgomery with a small majority in Hardin, Hart and Meade; should it be fought, will go for Murray. Should Mr. Murray get the eight counties it will be a great victory. He is a fine organizer and has the best of letters. He is true and courageous, a perfect gentleman and honest, and should he be defeated this time (which he will not be), he will have made a host of friends that will call him out again.

The people did not seem to know that Mr. Montgomery drew large money from the pockets of the people in the Senate of Kentucky or in Congress and put it in his coffers, and that neither Montgomery or Breckenridge are dictators of the district. I will now close by giving three cheers for D. R. Murray.

ANNEX.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Dean, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will be of great interest to all mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnston, Pa., after the great flood, and on account of my husband's employment there. We had several children with diarrhoea, and I was very badly 1. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Mr. Chamberlain. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, Ky., and Kincheloe, Meador & Co., Harlanburg, Ky.

Notice. The Breckenridge County Teacher's Institute will be held in Harlanburg, Ky., beginning August 20, 1894, and continuing for ten days. The teachers of this county, and those who expect to teach during this school year, to attend the full term.

Trustees are required to notify all teachers and those who expect to teach, of the time and place of meeting. A. R. Fisher, Secy.

RATHER MIXED.

How a Country Telegraph Operator Got Tangled in a Big Office.

"Occasionally a funny mistake occurs with telegrams," said Charlie Secrest, of Dover, a telegraph operator, at the Southern. "It is not very difficult to avoid them, and it does not happen often, but sometimes a dispatch will get bulled by getting mixed up with another. A country operator went on as an extra to take the associated press report. He had boasted of his experience and ability until it was supposed that he was way up as an operator. His first night was heavy one, and the wires were rushed. He got rattled, and two dispatches, one of a shipwreck and the other of a noted wedding march, the cannon boomed and most fashionable assemblages were gathered in this city awaiting the coming of the bride. The first sight of her was as she hovered to off Sandy Hook, floating the signal of distress. As she came up the aisle with her staff already gone and drifting helplessly, the great organ pealed forth the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the cannon boomed and the helpless people wrung their hands while strong men went as she approached her doom. She was accompanied by two bridesmaids, and the frightened crowd, seeing no hope if they stayed with her, dropped into the sea and lashed with the waves. The impressive air of Lohengrin was played as the bride, through the channel, beautifully decorated with rare exotics, and went down amid the shrieks of the dying. The bodies will probably be washed ashore with tomorrow's tide, and the people dispersed, delighted with the completeness of death, the beauty and art conception which marked every feature of the happy event."—St. Louis Republic.

Ayer's Ague Cure never fails to neutralize the poisons of malaria, and eradicate them from the system. Its preparation is purely vegetable, contains no harmful ingredients, and, if taken according to directions, is warranted to cure fever and ague. Try it.

LONG BRANCH.

Hugh Phillips, of Owensboro, is visiting at this place.

The trustees of this place want to engage a good teacher.

Mr. M. A. Myers, of Louisville, spent Sunday at this place.

Charlton and David Dittio visited in Cloverport last week.

J. M. Pipe, of Chicago, is visiting relatives at this place.

Miss Daley Richards, of Warsaw, is visiting Miss Nellie McCreel.

Mr. Andrew Carico, of near Garrett, visited at this place last week.

Miss Nellie Foushee, of Newton, Kan., is visiting Miss Ella Hendrick.

Mr. G. W. Brown, of Irvington, spent Sunday with Miss Mattie McCreel.

Stuart Young and a friend, of Louisville, spent Sunday at Mr. W. M. Dittio's.

Miss Nellie McCreel, who has been visiting in Cincinnati, returned home Monday night.

Miss Ella Hendrick spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Hendrick, near Guston.

Mr. J. H. Sullivan, of Louisville, spent Sunday with his family, who are visiting Mrs. W. L. Dooley.

Medesman Jeremiah Cherry and Tom Tear, of Brandenburg, spent Wednesday with Mrs. A. J. Rickard.

Mr. Kory Black, who has been visiting his grand-mother, Mrs. Agnes Rickard, and a particular friend has returned to his home in Louisville.

Miss Peggy Dittio, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Rees, near Columbus, Ohio, is expected home this week. Her sister, Mrs. Rees, will accompany her home to spend the month of August.

Mr. J. C. Rowell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit. He was in the Senate of Kentucky until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, Ky., and Kincheloe, Meador & Co., Harlanburg, Ky.

AXTEL.

Robt. Fraze, of Falls of Rough, visited friends at Axtel last Sunday.

From what I can learn and hear it is "Hurray for Murray," in this section. Mrs. Ben Hinton and daughter, Mittie, called relatives in the Forks of Rough last Sunday.

Mr. Robt. Rhodes, of McDaniel, was out to look Kirk last Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. Chas. Rhodes was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Nancy Alvis, of Glendean, last Sunday.

Mr. Charles Bennett and wife were the guests of Mr. W. R. Lewis at the Falls of Rough, last Sunday.

Mr. James C. Mattingly and his sister, Miss Mary, of Axtel, and Miss Lena Rhodes, of Irvington, were the guests of Mr. W. T. Carman last Sunday.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. The purest and best of its kind. Sold by all grocers.

WATCH THEM.

Ben Johnson's Men Are Out in the District Working for Montgomery.

While Republicans Are Running the Louisville Revenue Collector's Office

DEMOCRATS ARE IGNORED.

SHEPHERDSVILLE, Ky., July 28, '94.—EDITOR OF THE NEWS:—Head us some body! Golden rule says, "we're comin' in spite of Montgomery's mind of money and Ben Johnson's army of Republican gangsters. Bullitt is only a small pipen of a county, but things are getting hot here on a small scale, of course, and David R. Murray, the gentleman from Cloverport, is a snake in the votes, both comin' and gravin. The press, generally speaking, would have the people of the district believe Montgomery has a "cinch" on the county of Bullitt, and—well, the autocrat from Elizabethtown did have a little showing here until his (yes, his) collector, Bennie Johnson, pushed aside 100 Democratic applicants for storekeepers and gangsters and appointed in their stead some enemies of Democracy and violent flouters of the bloody shirt. Who is it that will stand up and swear these Republican appointments were made without Montgomery's knowledge and sanction? Alex has a "cinch" on Ben and Alex says Ben does; so does Ben's storekeepers and gangsters. The Democrats of this county wanted Mills for Speaker four years ago, but Alexander Benjamin Montgomery didn't need Mills in his business, and voted against the sentiment of his constituents for the party-disorganizer from Georgia.

This neck of the woods is for Murray, sure. We mean by the term—Bullitt is for Murray.

Nelson is for Murray.

Washington is for Murray.

Meade is for Murray, and—HARDIN is for Murray!!!

Any gentleman of the Green River valley, excepting storekeepers and postmasters, who has in his make-up stupidity enough to be gulled into voting for Montgomery, the man who "be-damn'd" Green River instead of darning it, the largest pair of stogy boots in the Fourth district ought to rise up in judgement against his unwholesome and to the yawning abyss of oblivion.

Watch Murray's majority in Bullitt. DEMOCRAT.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climate influences.

The Measles of Them.

A man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button, ride on the back coach of a train to save the interest of his pocketbook, and then, when he is around, stop his watch at night to save the wear and tear, leave his 'n' and 't' without a dot or cross to save ink, pasture his mother's grave to save rent, but a man of this kind is a gentleman and scholar compared to a fellow who will take a newspaper two or three years and when asked to pay for it, put it in the office and have it marked "refused." Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

Bill Nye.

IVORY SOAP
99% 100% PURE
DON'T ACCEPT IMITATIONS.
THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO., CHICAGO.

BEATS THEM ALL!
ORIGINALS OF LOW PRICES
Just for fun, Men's socks, 3 pairs $2.00
Ladies' Tan Shoes for 98c worth $2.00
Ladies' Fine Slippers for $1.00 worth 2.00
One Lot Children Slippers for 40c worth 75c
One Lot Baby Shoes for 10c worth 35c
Ladies' Vests for 10c worth 15c
Ladies' Vests for 1c worth 35c
Ladies' Vests Lisle thread for 10c worth 50c

HEADQUARTERS FOR BARGAINS
One Lot Ladies' White Aprons for 10c worth 25c
Wool Challie, desirable pattern, for 10c worth 25c
One Lot Shepherd's plaid, Cotton Worned for 7c 20c
One Lot Dark Mull's for 10c worth 20c
Remnants Calico 3/4 yard.

GEO. YEAKEL & CO., Brandenburg, Ky.

WE ARE SOLE AGENTS IN THIS COUNTY FOR THE SALE OF THE CELEBRATED GREEN RIVER WHISKEY
Quality and Purity
Unexcelled. Recommended by leading physicians.
NEVITT & GOUGH,
Wholesale and Retail Druggists,
BRANDENBURG, KY.

J. C. BOURNE, J. M. HARPER, DANIEL BROOKS

BOURNE, HARPER, BROOKS & CO.,

Commission Salesmen of Live Stock

CATTLE, HOGS AND SHEEP.

BOURBON STOCK YARDS! LOUISVILLE, KY.

TWO SEPARATE SCHOOLS UNDER ONE MANAGEMENT.

BOWLING GREEN Business College. SOUTHERN Normal School.

ESTABLISHED IN 1875.

BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS COLLEGE. SOUTHERN NORMAL SCHOOL.

The great Business Training School of the South. English, Teachers', Scientific, and Classical. Writing, and Penmanship. Pupils can enter at any time. Low rates of board and tuition. Send for prospectus.

227 Madison Avenue, New York. Address: CHESTER BRON, Prop'r, Bowling Green, Ky.

BEST BLOOD PURIFIER

in the world. It cures Nervelessness, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Bile, Tetter, Scrofula, and every trouble arising from bad blood. Try it, and be sure to get "Watts'."

For sale by A. R. FISHER, Druggist, Cloverport, Ky.

From what I can learn and hear it is "Hurray for Murray," in this section.

Mrs. Ben Hinton and daughter, Mittie, called relatives in the Forks of Rough last Sunday.

Mr. Robt. Rhodes, of McDaniel, was out to look Kirk last Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. Chas. Rhodes was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Nancy Alvis, of Glendean, last Sunday.

Mr. Charles Bennett and wife were the guests of Mr. W. R. Lewis at the Falls of Rough, last Sunday.

Mr. James C. Mattingly and his sister, Miss Mary, of Axtel, and Miss Lena Rhodes, of Irvington, were the guests of Mr. W. T. Carman last Sunday.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. The purest and best of its kind. Sold by all grocers.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. The purest and best of its kind. Sold by all grocers.

Awarded
Highest Honors—World's Fair.
DR.

ICE CREAM
BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Alum, Alum or any other adulterant.
40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1894.

Notice to Subscribers.

The date on the label indicates the time to which your subscription is good. This receipt is a receipt on expiration notice every week. Renewal notice will be printed in your name on the margin of this paper, and we if it is not renewed, please let us know how long your time has expired, please renew at once.

LOCAL REVIEWS.

It has come to stay—the Palace salon. For milk toast to the City Bakery. Hardware all kinds at low prices—Sulzer's.

We lead and others follow—Palace Salon. Ice cream freezes at frozen prices—Sulzer's.

It is an established fact—the Palace Salon. We have hammocks at tempting prices—Sulzer's.

Born to the wife of B. B. Pierce, July 20, a fine boy.

Look out for the big picnic to be given at Holt, August 11.

Fresh crackers and cakes just received at the City Bakery.

The Old Point Comfort excursion last Thursday had a good crowd.

Charles Carlisle got the hand badly mauled at the shops Monday.

Pride's floating Opera drew a large crowd last Friday night, as usual.

J. A. Boyd had two fingers on his left hand mauled nearly off last Sunday.

The "Tixies" has let the contract for a new iron bridge across Sugar Tree Run.

You see it to-day—tomorrow it's gone—our bargain counter is melting away—Sulzer's.

Crystallized wafers just the thing to eat with ice cream. You can get them at the City Bakery.

Will you build? If no, we can furnish you with keds, hangers, nails, and other material needed—Sulzer's.

What everybody says must be true—they say that the best and coldest beer is sold at the Palace Salon.

While China and Japan are fighting we will sell the best tea you ever saw—our summer drinks—Sulzer's.

This week we are going to make history on fancy lace curtains. A loss to us—a bargain to you—Sulzer's.

When money is scarce now is the best time to make it go the farthest—Our great mid-summer sale still goes on—Sulzer's.

Owen Cunningham, Carl Richardson, Dech Miller, Judge Board, and Judge Murray, candidates for various county offices, spoke at Elder's Spring, last Saturday.

T. F. Sawyer's new home, on Hinton street, is nearing completion. The plasterers and painters now have it in hand. It will be a nice two-story residence when completed.

Mrs. Ada Winter, sister to Miss Doll Hollingsworth, of Iowa, who is well known in this city, and cousin to Mrs. J. K. Keith, of this city, arrived at her home in Iowa, Monday morning.

Mr. James S. Tinsley, residing on the hill near Holt's Bottom, has surpassed all his neighbors this year in a yield of wheat. He only had 71 acres, but it averaged 25 bushels to the acre.

William Kendall, living in Quality Corner, this county, had the best yield of wheat. His crop averaged 30 bushels to the acre. John Louis Henry comes next with an average yield of 20 bushels.

Vaite Joe Tait, of Tunkin, was in the city fishing a couple of days last week. He had fisherman's luck, but said that he did not come to catch fish—just came fishing and looking for votes for corner.

The farmers report from all over the country that there are absolutely no tobacco worms this year. Bob Mattingly, of Balltown, says that he has actually caught enough worms off his five acres this year to make a blackberry pie.

Percy Hopper has just completed an excellent bicycle track in the lower end of the town. Any one desiring of using it, can do so by paying him $2.00 for adults and $1 for boy children any one to a ticket for the remainder of the season 1894.

The picnic at Elder's Spring, last Saturday was largely attended, and the day would have been an enjoyable one if it had not been for the disagreeable occurrence late in the afternoon, a storm of which may be found in another column.

Mr. W. O. Allen, agent, has received a complimentary letter from the Managers of the Adams Express Company, on account of and testimony of the monthly reports. We who know him and know his good and accurate business qualities, know that the compliment is well deserved.

A little excitement was created down at Vau's corner last week by the horse attached to Vau's delivery wagon taking a notion that he intended to make an excursion over the city unassisted and unaccompanied by a driver. The result was a smashing of the delivery wagon, but the horse is still going out at the same old clip.

The Bowling Green District Conference, which met in this city last week, brought all the prominent clergymen of the Green River section in the area, and a large number of the members of the churches in the area.

The result was a smashing of the delivery wagon, but the horse is still going out at the same old clip.

The Bowling Green District Conference, which met in this city last week, brought all the prominent clergymen of the Green River section in the area, and a large number of the members of the churches in the area.

The result was a smashing of the delivery wagon, but the horse is still going out at the same old clip.

The Bowling Green District Conference, which met in this city last week, brought all the prominent clergymen of the Green River section in the area, and a large number of the members of the churches in the area.

The result was a smashing of the delivery wagon, but the horse is still going out at the same old clip.

The Bowling Green District Conference, which met in this city last week, brought all the prominent clergymen of the Green River section in the area, and a large number of the members of the churches in the area.

LAST LICKS.

"Correspondent" Shows the Inconsistencies of the Elizabeth-town News.

And Shows Where It Straddles for the Sake of Its Pet Candidate.

MURRAY IS ALL RIGHT.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., July 28, 1894.—EDITOR NEWS.—In this week's issue of the Elizabethtown News its readers are treated to some glaring inconsistencies, some of which I shall notice. If you please. In one editorial squib it says, "It took Hon. D. R. Murray three weeks to let whether he was for or against the sugar bounty." In another squib he shoots that "The statement in the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS that Mr. Murray said he was for free sugar in answer to Judge Montgomery's charge that he (Murray) was in favor of a sugar bounty is no answer at all. A man can be for free sugar and also be for sugar bounty."

In one quotation it will be seen that the Elizabethtown News admits that Mr. Murray is against the sugar bounty (though (as it says) it took him three weeks to say). In the other quotation it admits that it is for free sugar but tries to leave the impression that Mr. Murray is in favor of a bounty.

Now in all candor, I desire to ask all fair minded people what they think of such stuff as this? Can the editor of any paper be so presumptuous as to think his readers would not notice the unfairness in all this?

But I quote again from the same paper of the same date:

"Every Democrat who votes against free coal, free iron and free sugar has better read the hand-writing on the wall. The people are not to be deceived and the political defeat of every one of them is universally sealed with one vote."

Now I have no objection to this but it was written for the benefit of a certain Congressman and not that any interest was felt for any senator. And it purposely ignores another fact (or should be) to draw the attention of its readers from the issue and for which it has always posed as a champion. I think you can give the Elizabethtown News my Mr. Montgomery here? Nothing? absolutely nothing.

And its readers will remember that some six weeks ago it said that it was ready "to strike every head that bobs up that straddles on the silver question."

Why have you not struck, my good News? Ah, you know you can't do it without hurting the man who is a very great straddler but a very unbecomely one.

It must be admitted, my good News, that he is about the most awkward two-horse rider you ever saw and that he can't straddle a mule with gentility. Don't you really think so?

Hurrah for David who has killed Goliath with his sling and round stone of truth and purity. Just as did David of old, he came into the arena with naught on his side but God and right and he has vanquished every giant of the fight without a scar or blemish.

Then again I say, hurrah for Murray and the star spangled banner and the starry goddess of reform.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local applications as they cannot reach diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

F. J. CUNNEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c.

Mr. Alvin Skillman, of near Hardinburg, was in the city one day last week. Mr. Skillman is one of the hustling young farmers of the country, evidence of which may be found in the following remarks, "I have a fine crop of wheat this year and I am feeling it to my legs. I did the same thing last year and my wheat brought me $1 a bushel. Mr. Skillman also said that he had the prospect now for good crops that he ever had in his life."

Orville S. White, son of Dr. W. B. White, died at his home in Louisville yesterday morning. He was taken sick with typhoid fever about two weeks ago and was not able to stand the ravages of that dread disease.

Good Company and Good Agents. Board of Governors of the Continental Fire Insurance Company in Breckinridge, Meade and Hancock counties, have recently received a report. This company is one of the old reliable, first-class companies of the world. It has a surplus of $1,000,000 for the purpose of paying losses, and there are always promptly paid. The company could not have obtained two better men than Frank Claycomb and Walker Bond. They are both good, reliable business men.

Tar Springs. Breckinridge Company Limited will run another excursion to the Tar Springs on Sunday, August 12th. Trains will leave every two or three hours and make connections at the intermediate points. L. S. L. & T. trains. Fare 35 cents round trip.

PERSONAL.

W. S. Bower went to Holt Sunday.

Mrs. George Boyd and children went to Harroville Saturday.

Mr. Duck Moorman, of Glendens, was in the city last Saturday.

Miss Anna Ryan, of Henderson, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Boyd.

Mr. W. K. Barnes and wife, of Harroville, were in the city last week.

Mr. Fred May and Miss Sarah Hamman visited in Canaan Sunday.

The Misses Hawkins, of Letchfield, are the guests of relatives in the city.

Mrs. A. B. Skillman and family and Mrs. Heyser are out at Tar Springs.

Mr. James S. Tinsley and family attended church at New Market last Sunday.

Mrs. H. V. Dunes is visiting her brother, Mr. V. G. Babbage, at Harroville.

Miss Cappel Deason has gone to Owensboro to visit her uncle, Dr. D. H. Jackson.

Mr. Chas. Pate, of Texas, is in the city and county paying a visit to relatives and friends.

Rev. L. B. Finkelman, of New Albany, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moorman.

Miss Vera Miller, who has been visiting in Rockport for several weeks, returned home today.

Fred D'Hay is out at Brandenburg having a good time, as every body does who visits that good old town.

Mrs. J. W. Porter, of Owensboro, and Mrs. Roberts, of Elroy, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ogilvie, of Harroville.

W. D. Wilson, of Jolly's Station, was in the city yesterday. He says his country is in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. K. Withers and wife, of Kirk Station, are in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Fennie Wedding.

Miss Nannie Murray and brother Allen have gone out to John McFarlane's to spend several days.

Messrs. D. C. and J. T. Bell, of Harroville, were visiting Mr. J. M. Bell, of this city, last Saturday.

Misses Martha Mattingly and Vanda Carson attended the dedication of the Baptist church at Canaan Sunday.

Walker Board is down at Paducah with the State Department. He is secretary of the consular department.

Mrs. Fennie Wedding leaves today for Texas to make her home a time with her son, Mr. Chas. Blackie.

Mr. H. W. Atwell, of Brandenburg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. David Calk, returned home yesterday.

David Calk, who has been quite sick, we are pleased to say, is able to be out again, though he is yet quite feeble.

Miss Bettie Dummer, after an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. John Burks, of Henderson, returned home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wron, of Unity, Hancock county, are in the city the guests of their son, Deputy Sheriff Thos. L. Wron.

Miss Lillie Skillman came in from the Tar Springs Friday afternoon to be present at the reception given by Mrs. L. E. Watke.

Mr. Wm. Lyons, of Jolly Station, was in the city last Thursday. He reports that every body is for Murray in this section.

Messrs. W. C. Moorman, James Dean and Vick Robertson, of Glendens, are now at the Tar Springs, where they are staying.

Mrs. W. L. Patterson, after a very pleasant visit to her brother in this county, went to Canaan last week to see her son Robert.

Mr. F. A. Elder, of White House, was looking over the pastures at Tar Springs last night, trying to find an animal of his favorite color.

Miss Nellie Murray left last Thursday for Brandenburg where she will remain several days, the guest of the Misses Henson and Lewis.

Mrs. J. P. Pittsboro and son, Leslie went to Canaan, Ind., Saturday to attend the dedication of the Baptist church and visit relatives.

Mr. J. M. Patterson, who has been attending the Normal, last week to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Wright, of Elroy.

Miss Anna Griffith, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mr. Dr. Watkins in Owensboro Monday.

Mrs. Scott, of Lakeland, Florida, who has been visiting Miss Brook Stephens, of Holt, for several weeks, leaves this week for Georgia to the service of many.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Babbage and family spent an enjoyable day at the Tar Springs last Saturday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Robertson and party.

Mr. Ben F. Richardson, of Chicago, is in the city. He was sent to this city for Mr. Richardson last Cleveland four years ago and is now doing well in the grocery business in Chicago.

Mr. Dr. Smith, Misses Lafayette Lallist and Mayne Griffith left last week for Louisville to join Mrs. Lillie Green and a party from Holt Falls of Rough. From there they leave for Old Point Comfort for a ten days journey.

The following party from Glendens, are at Tar Springs occupying the cottage: Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moorman, Miss Elna and George Robertson, Carrie Owen and Mr. Vau Robertson.

The following party from near Harroville, spent Sunday at the Tar Springs: William Jarboe and wife, William Beaschup and wife, Sam Tain and Mrs. Lillie Pate, Le Miller and Miss Mabel Hawkins, Frank Pate and Miss Maud Hawkins and Frank Jarboe.

Mr. H. E. Miner, Holt's Bottom, returned at his residence last Tuesday evening. Among the guests were the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moorman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shurt, Cleveland, Ky.; Owensboro; Barrett, Louisville; Holt, Burks and Stephens, Holt.

Mr. G. P. Bush and Mr. Ridgely Cayce, of the "Texas" party, were accompanied last trip by Miss M. A. Bush, a very bright and accomplished young lady.

Miss Dush is spending the week with her brother in Louisville. The party were entertained at tea while here by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Babbage.

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Watkins gave a delightful tea last Friday evening in honor of the guests, Misses Anna Griffith, of Owensboro, Jess Smith, of Lakeland, Fla., and Brook Stephens, of Holt. Those present were Misses Maggie and Bettie Dummer, Elsie Skillman, Maud Wain, Mary McFarlane, Allen Murray, George White, Dals Owen, Beale Hamilton, Lillie Dummer, Nannie Murray, Misses Eugene Vau, Gerlie Gregory, Fred Frazer, J. S. Barnes, Victor Barnes, Hal Murray, Ernest C. Babbage, Percy Hopper, O. T. and J. S. Skillman, A. B. Skillman, Mrs. Hester connections at the intermediate points, L. S. L. & T. trains. Fare 35 cents round trip.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

Most Perfect Made.

White Sulphur Well

Crawford County, Ind.

Address
Eshy & Mogan, Prop's

Post-office: Sulphur Well, Crawford Co., Ind.

NEAR THE HEART.

Is Where George Blair Received a Stab from Horace Gilbert's Knife.

The Picnic at Elder's Spring Is Almost Marked by a Murder.

BOTH ARE DRUNKEN TOUNGS.

The picnic at Elder's Spring last Saturday came within less than a quarter of an inch of ending in a murder.

About 600 people were there enjoying themselves in the usual picnic fashion, and everything went off smoothly 'till late in the afternoon.

Among the crowd was Horace Gilbert and George Blair. These two men had filled up on beer, and to keep up their reputation as rowdying toughs, they proceeded to raise a row. They had two or three little spats during the day, but not until about 5 o'clock did the thing come to a head. At large time they had called each other bad names for a while when Gilbert drew a large pocket knife and started for Blair. Several men grabbed Gilbert, but he tore himself loose. Blair was unarmed, and started to run. Gilbert pursued him along the dancing floor, through the crowd, the ladies scattering in every direction. Around the hand stand they went, Gilbert shouting at Blair with the knife whenever he got in reach. Blair stopped to pick up a club, but being very drunk he got it tangled between his legs and fell down. Gilbert rushed onto him, but Blair lay on his back and kicked off his legs so vigorously that he kept Gilbert kicked off for a short time. At last, Blair grabbed Gilbert and pulled himself up and started to run Gilbert. By this time men had caught Gilbert, but he had already done his nefarious work with the knife.

Blair ran about 100 yards, climbed over a fence into a field and back again into the woods where he fell. On examination it was found that he was severely cut. A long gash was cut in the back of the head, his chin was split and his left wrist was slashed clear across. These cuts while painful were not serious, but he had, also, received a stab in the left breast about a quarter of an inch below the heart. This wound was a severe one, the knife having penetrated to the hollow.

A messenger was sent to this city for Dr. S. S. Watkins, who repaired to the scene and dressed the injured man's wounds, pronouncing the one under the heart very dangerous.

Blair lay on the ground near the picnic ground several hours into the night before a wagon was procured to move him away. He was then taken to a relative's house not far away, but his relative would not permit him to come into the house. He was then taken to a barn where he was made as comfortable as possible.

On Sunday he was taken to his home on the Lotherland's farm. Blair is a young man between 25 and 30 years of age, married and has one child. That he will get well is very doubtful, as he was in a critical condition when last heard from. He belongs to a family of ladies who are noted for their shooting and cutting scraps.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

Horace Gilbert is about twenty-two years of age and has made quite a reputation lately of being a tough citizen. He is the man that Marshal Orilla De Haven shot in this city about one year ago, resulting in the death of the latter.

Blair is the picnic grounds sometime after the fight, saying that he was going to Harroville and give himself up. This he did not do, however, and at last accounts the officers had been unable to find him. He is a son of George Gilbert, a respected farmer and good citizen residing near Stephensport.

New management.
Excellent table.
Good String Band.
All kinds of amusements.
For rates, etc.,

CHINA WARE

Is a Summer Ware

Although it isn't exactly "Summer Wear," but when you put on the Summer wear you need our

CHINA WARE

For TEA, ICE CREAM, LEMONADE, Sets.

Complete outfits for TABLE SERVICE of every sort and description,

--Inexpensive--

are displayed by

DO YOU WEAR Suspenders?

